Fort Vancouver High School

Fort Vancouver High School Center for International Studies is part of the Asia Society's International Studies Schools Network. Fort's Center for International Studies school-wide program develops students' global competence by actively engaging students in all coursework to positively impact our world. Globally competent students:

International Studies Schools Network

- Investigate the world by asking important questions and conducting research about locally and globally significant issues.
- Recognize perspectives, both of others and themselves, to better understand interactions, situations, and events in our world.
- Communicate ideas in an appropriate manner to diverse audiences to positively impact understanding and collaborate in an interdependent world.
- Take action, both personally and collaboratively, to positively contribute to local, regional, and global issues.

At the Fort Vancouver High School Center for International Studies, students in all classes are actively learning about global issues and how they can positively impact their world. All Fort students have access to a wide variety of globally-focused coursework including Contemporary Cultures in Literature, Exploring Foods, Mandarin, Natural Resources and Conservation, AP Spanish Language and Culture, and Contemporary World Problems. The Fort Vancouver High School Center for International Studies has a Travel Center where students can explore learning opportunities within the United States and internationally to broaden their perspectives and enhance their high school experience. Students at Fort also have the option to participate in an International Studies pathway through completing projects, school and community service, and participating in cultural events along with their required coursework. Students participating in this pathway may earn 0.25 Miscellaneous credit each year.

Fort Vancouver High School Center for International Studies graduates are globally aware and engaged citizens who are college-, career- and life-ready.
